TOWN LITERALLY TWISTED

ANOTHER SCANDAL UNWARRANTED IN THE WILLAMANTIC BANK.

There is a ludicrous incident regarding the clue of the new President-Bewilderingment Prevalence-Walden's Daughter is Lying at the Point of Death.

Willamantic, Conn., July 29.—This town is literally twisted as a result of the frequency with which one rumor is displaced by another in connection with the collapse of the Dime Savings bank. To-night an old rumor is exploded and a new one displaces it; another scandal is unearthed, or said to be unearthed, and a categorical prophecy is made apropos of Walden's capture.

It will be remembered that C. B. Pomeroy, the new president, was at work on a clue last week as to the whereabouts of the missing bank books. To-night it comes to light that the alleged clue developed into a ludicrous incident. It seems that Silas S. Loomer, a well known resident, had occasion last week to destroy some old papers in his possession. Accordingly he put them in an old satchel and instructed his coachman to throw them into the Willamantic river about two miles above the city. His orders were obeyed and some days later the bank officials learned that a suspicious bag was floating in the river.

President Pomeroy at once concluded that the satchel contained the missing bank books and accompanied by Officer Hastings and armed with long grappling irons he went to the river and fished for the bag. It had disappeared, and the water being very deep at this point rendered the search difficult. At length, however, the bag was hooked and raised to the surface. It contained Mr. Loomer's old papers.

The new rumor referred to above is in regard to Walden's whereabouts. The missing treasurer has been seen within a week, and Pinkerton Detective Fred Hines is not after him. It is said he is not a great distance from Willamantic, and State Attorney Hunter announced this afternoon that Walden will be a captive before Saturday night.

The new scandal is surprising because of the fact that if the truth of certain statements is made clear one of the best known men in the town is irregularly implicated with Walden. To-night the directors of the bank held another meeting. It was for the purpose of acting on a telegram which was expected from Attorney E. B. Sumner, who is now in Allentown, Pa., trying to complete and wind up the deal with Saxon & Baines. No telegram arrived, and the directors adjourned until to-morrow night.

It was common talk on the streets to-night that E. B. Sumner has been acting not only as counsel for the Dime Savings bank, but for John L. Walden, the missing treasurer. After Mr. Sumner's first visit to Allentown, according to the story now going the rounds, he came back to Willamantic and made an offer to the bank officials. It is already known that he stated that the bank would realize between $5,000 and $10,000 from the Allentown firm. Walden's shortage was something over $4,000.

It is now said that Attorney Sumner upon his return from Allentown offered to turn over to the bank the whole amount, $9,000, or thereabouts, provided no reward was offered for the capture of Walden. In other words, as one citizen expressed it to-night, "the bank could have the extra $4,500 if Walden was let alone."

In addition to all this, it is said, and Attorney Sumner is said to have admitted it, that on the Thursday that Walden left town he was at Sumner's house almost the last thing before he left town. The bank officials have seen fit to maintain a silence upon this latest sensation and will neither confirm nor deny. It is not known now what will come next and bewilderingly prevails.

It is probable that State Attorney Hunter will abandon his efforts to capture Walden for some days at least. His nine-year-old daughter lies at the point of death and it is not expected to survive the night. Mr. Hunter is almost prostrated at her condition.

ON THE BALL FIELD.

Results of the Games in the Big League Yesterday.

At Philadelphia.—The Philadelphia won to-day's game from Boston in a close and exciting finish, eleven runs being scored by both teams in the ninth inning. Both Nichols and Carney were hit hard throughout. The fielding of Cross, Hamilton and Lowe and the batting of Clements were the features. Clements was presented with a diamond ring. The score: Philadelphia 11 0 2 0 1 0 0 7-12 Boston 2 0 0 0 1 0 1 4-10

Hits.—Philadelphia 16, Boston 4. Errors.—Philadelphia 3, Boston 7. Batteries.—Carney and Clements; Nichols and Gansel.

At Pittsburg.—Hawley was trounced in a lively manner by Chicago to-day, and Pittsburg lost a splendid chance to step into first place. Hawley was not only hit hard, but pitched in a very indifferent manner. Outside of the first inning Terry was almost invincible. It was a slow, lifeless game. The score: Pittsburg 3 0 0 0 2 0 0 0-5 Chicago 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0-7

Hits.—Pittsburg 3, Chicago 15. Errors.—Pittsburg 1, Chicago 3. Batteries.—Hawley and Merritt; Terry and Donahue.

At Louisville.—Louisville defeated St. Louis to-day in an exciting contest. Both pitchers were in splendid form and their support was excellent. Only one St. Louis player reached second base and only four made first safely. The score: Louisville 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-1 St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

Hits.—Louisville 9, St. Louis 2. Errors.—Louisville 2, St. Louis 2. Batteries.—Cunningham and Warner; Ehret and Miller.

THE NEW YORK STRIKE.

The Tailors Believe That They Will Win Battle.

New York, July 29.—Walden's hall was packed with the striking tailors this afternoon, a mass meeting held to hear the report of their arbitration committee. Crowds were unable to gain admission. Mr. Feigenbaum presided. Nathan Reiben reported that the Brooklyn union was in fine condition for the strike, and was determined to stand solid against the contractors until the new agreement was signed. Every mention of a contractor's name was received with hisses. Meyer Schoenfeld, general organizer, made a long speech exhorting the strikers to use no violence.

"We will surely win," he said. "The bosses have violated every stipulation of their agreement, and we will now make them live up to their bargain. It takes three months. The outlook is favorable, and by Wednesday night we will probably have everything settled for many of the bosses have already signed the agreement, and we will make all of them sign it immediately. We will not recognize a contractor's association, for not more than half of the contractors belong to it. As soon as a contractor signs the new agreement and puts up a bond of $300 we will allow men to go to work for him, but not before. This is the substance of the arbitration committee's decision."

A vote was taken to determine whether the strikers would accept the decision. The vote was loud and unanimous, endorsing the committee. Immediately after the vote one of the strikers disturbed the meeting with a boisterous complaint that he had not received his wages, and that the committee should be held responsible for the collection. The chairman replied that the executive committee would do all in its power to collect back wages. Other speakers were Benjamin Schweitzer, Henry Woxman and Abe Harrison. The meeting adjourned at 4 o'clock, and it was followed by a meeting of the woman's branch of the United Brotherhood of Tailors under the direction of Lottie Persky, the delegate, and Meyer Frank. More than 500 women attended the meeting, which was held for the purpose of better organization and to make a strong effort to get all non-union girls into the union. While the two meetings were in progress at Walden's hall the 900 striking Lithuanians, who were called out yesterday morning, held a meeting in an adjoining building and passed resolutions of sympathy with the tailors' brotherhood.

A special meeting of the Clothing Contractors' Mutual Protective Association was held this afternoon to take action in relation to the tailors' strike. A. Green presided and forty members were added to the membership. "There is not truth in the report that our association does not represent the majority of contractors," said Henry Witkowski, after the meeting. "There were over three hundred and fifty of the principal contractors of New York and Brooklyn at our meeting to-day and at the rate they are joining the association every one of any consequence will belong to it. Our answer to the striking tailors is embodied in the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted this afternoon."

The preamble of these declares that employees left the shops long before the expiration of the existing contract without cause and that repeated attempts on the part of employers to harmonize the trade were not accepted by the employees. The resolutions follow:

Resolved, That the members of the Clothing Contractors' Mutual association unanimously adopt that we will grant to our employees a continuance of the ten-hour work day for five days of each week and a nine-hour day for the last working day, regularly weekly pay days at the existing scale under conditions that we shall be in a position to judge who is and who is not entitled to such wages, and be it further

Resolved, That we will not continue to exist under the arbitrary laws of the autocratic walking delegates who in many cases precipitate trouble for personal motives as cases have occurred during the existing year.

About 1,000 striking tailors made things very lively for a time to-day in Brownsville, which is practically the home of the striking tailors in Brooklyn. Strikers congregated in Siegel street, where they wrecked several sweat shops. At 90 Siegel street, in the rear of which is a sweat shop conducted by Emanuel Silverstein and his wife, about one hundred strikers turned over all the machines and assaulted the proprietor and his wife. The mob also wrecked shops at 22, 44, 55 and 141 Siegel street and beat several non-union men. The police finally quelled the disturbance.

CUT HIS HEAD.

A Diver Strikes on Rocks.

William Lanigan, while in bathing near Waverly Grove, Savin Rock, yesterday afternoon, dove and his head struck on the rocks and was split open. Several men rescued him. He was unconscious for two hours. Dr. Wilson was called. He was here on a Foresters' picnic from Meriden.

Opened With a Boom.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 29.—The fourth week of the Summer School of America opened to-day with a boom. Several noted speakers are to deliver addresses this week. Rev. Dr. J. A. Zahn to-day lectured on "Evolution." In the course of his remarks he said that it seemed difficult if not impossible to ignore the fact that some kind of evolution had obtained in the formation of the universe and in the development of the forms of life with which our earth is peopled. He asserted that there was no conflict between science and the Catholic church. A magnificent reception was tendered Bishop Beavens of Springfield this evening.

EMPLOYED AS GOVERNESS

AN AUSTRIAN WOMAN'S CLAIM AGAINST A NEW HAVEN DOCTOR.

She Engaged as Governess for Three Years at Stipulated Wages—Says the Doctor Beat Her Cruelly—The Doctor's Name Not Disclosed—City Attorney Matthewman and Superintendent Preston Refuse to Talk.

New York, July 29.—At the office of the Austrian consul, Otto P. Everhard, to-day, it was said that the young woman who called there last week and had asked advice regarding what action she could take against her former employer in New Haven told her consul that eight months ago in Carlsbad, Germany, she met a doctor's family. The doctor, she alleged, entered into a written contract with her and brought her to New Haven, Conn., where he is now a practicing physician. The contract stipulated that she should be employed as governess for a period of three years, at a salary of $14 a month for the first year, $16 a month for the second year and $18 a month for the third year.

A short time ago, the woman said, she was discharged without reason, and was only paid for the eight months' time she had worked. The woman also alleged that she had been ill-treated and that the physician had severely beaten her.

The consul informed her that he could do nothing for her, and advised her to go back to New Haven and begin action against her employer for the recovery of the money which was alleged to be due her per contract. The woman's name is not known to the consul here, and he says he does not know the name of the doctor whom the woman says employed her.

The woman referred to spent nearly an hour with Superintendent Preston of the Associated Charities in conference with City Attorney Matthewman last Friday. Her story, it is understood, implicates some families of high standing in New Haven, in a breach of the peace case. When the city attorney was told of Consul Everhard's statement yesterday afternoon he seemed surprised, and said that he knew nothing of any physician being in the case. "The woman certainly did not say anything to me about a physician, and if it was only a breach of contract I would not bother with it. Her complaint, if true, is of a criminal nature, but I cannot divulge what its nature is until I hear the story of those who are accused. I can see where there might possibly be a suit for breach of contract after a criminal end of the matter is arranged."

Both City Attorney Matthewman and Superintendent Preston when seen last evening said the matter was one which needed further investigation and was not yet ripe for disclosure.

THE OREGON CONVENTION.

Not Likely That the Free Silver Men Will Get Anything.

Columbus, O., July 29.—As the time of the democratic state convention draws near the situation becomes involved and the result difficult to predict. Both ex-Governor Campbell and Congressman Sorg have now declared unequivocally and emphatically that they will not accept the nomination for governor. Up to this time it was generally regarded as a certainty that one of these gentlemen would be chosen to lead the ticket.

With these out of the race it seems to be anybody's race, but Senator Brice whose interests in the campaign are paramount will probably control the convention. Possibly John H. Thomas of Springfield, or Neal R. Hysell of this city may be nominated for governor. It is not at all likely that the free silver men will control the convention, nor that there will be any considerable number of free silver delegates in the convention, but they are determined and bold and it is expected that being defeated in the committee on resolutions they will carry the fight upon the floor.

An attempt will be made to condemn Senator Brice for his coinage views, but the convention will probably reject such a resolution and endorse his course in a general way.

Her Mast Gone.

New London, Conn., July 29.—Sloop yacht Viola of the New York Yacht club was towed in this afternoon with her mast gone. In a blow off Norwalk Island Saturday her mast broke off one-third the way down. She will get a new mast here, which will delay her several days. Her owner, C. N. Wayland, was aboard at the time of the accident and is here with the yacht.

Shut Down on Mills.

Lawrence, Mass., July 29.—Notices were posted in the Everett mills to-day that the mills would close Saturday and remain closed during August, reopening September 3. Superintendent Milliken refused to give any reason for the extended shut down. Some 1,200 operatives will be affected.

Dismasted Off No Walk.

New London, July 29.—The sloop yacht Viola was towed into this harbor this afternoon by the New Haven tug J. W. Hobart. The Viola, which is owned by C. N. Wayland, was completely dismasted off Norwalk on Saturday during a fierce squall. She was towed into New Haven and to-day proceeded to this city, where she will be hauled out and repaired. The Viola when the squall struck her was on the way to New Haven, where she was to join the New York Yacht club, to which she belongs.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

There Was a Large Attendance at the Opening in Cleveland.

Cleveland, July 29.—The grand circuit meeting opened here to-day. The attendance was the largest of any first day in the history of the famous Glenview track, fully five thousand persons being in the stands. Many in the crowd were bicycle enthusiasts and the two bicycle races proved popular features of the day's sport. The track was fairly fast, although rather too hard and dry for sensational time.

Larabee was a strong favorite in the first event, the 2:33 trot, at $25 to $5 for the field, and would have won in straight heats had he not broken in the first heat on the first turn, Fred Kohl showing a good burst of speed and winning. Larabee won the next three heats as he pleased, going the fourth in 2:12 1/2, and lowering his Detroit record 1 1/2 seconds.

The talent got a bad throw-down in the 2:27 trot. Red of Waramoque was a favorite at $16 to $25 for the field. Bassora, an outsider, won in three straight heats. In the 2:27 trot Sundland Clay was a favorite in the books at $3 to $2 for the field. He won in straight heats, although both A. L. Kempland and Judge Rice gave him a hard drive in the second and third heats respectively. Sanger gave Tyler a hard ride in the mile bicycle, open, lapping his wheel at the finish.

In the mile handicap Patrick O'Connor, 70 yards, won by an inch from Tyler, who started from the scratch. Tyler rode the last quarter in thirty-one seconds.

Old Friends Attend the Funeral of Benjamin Cheney.

Boston, July 29.—Old King chapel was the scene of a solemn service this afternoon, when the friends and business associates of Benjamin Pierce Cheney gathered in large numbers at his funeral. All the pews on the left side of the chapel under the gallery had been reserved for the expressmen, who formed almost a solid body through that section of the auditorium. Bankers and business men were present in large number. There was not attempt at floral display. The service was conducted according to the regular form as prescribed by the Unitarian denomination. Rev. Howard Brown of Brookline was the officiating clergyman.

The honorary bearers were Richard Olney, Charles U. Cotting, W. S. Seacombe, Thomas H. Canfield of Burlington, Vt.; H. H. Hunsnewell, J. V. Colgate, Charles J. Whitmore, C. T. Barney, J. J. STABBING AFFRAY.

Dispute Over a Pool Game Results in Bloodshed.

Cornelius Burke of 167 Portsea street, a freight conductor on the Canal road, was playing pool with Harry Faulkner of Christopher street in John Griffin's saloon on Water street last evening. A dispute arose over the game, and Faulkner drew a knife and stabbed Burke on the left shoulder, inflicting a slight wound. Dr. Joseph B. Monahan of Congress avenue was summoned and took seven stitches in the wound, which was not very deep. Burke was not very seriously injured, as he was able to go to work.

Many Governors to Attend.

Washington, July 29.—The Chickamauga park commission has received notice of the contemplated arrival of twenty governors of states with their staffs at the dedication of the park September 18, 19 and 20.

TO EXTEND REPUBLICANISM

IMPORTANT MEETING OF STATE LEAGUE HELD IN THIS CITY.

Executive Committee of Republican Clubs Consider Means for Organizing Clubs Throughout the State—Next Meeting to be Held in September.

An important meeting of the executive committee of the State League of Republican clubs was held at the Hotel Majestic in this city yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting was held for the purpose of devising ways and means to extend and organize republican clubs in all sections of the state where they do not now exist. Frederick B. Farnsworth of this city, president of the State League of Republican clubs, presided, and the other members present were James P. Glinn of Winsted, Secretary James A. Howarth of New Haven, Alexander Harbison of Hartford, H. H. Scribner of Bridgeport, Stiles Judson of Stratford, E. Bishop of Woodstock, George J. Allen of Middletown, Robert O. Eaton of North Haven, Wheaton F. Dowd of Litchfield, C. B. Ware of New London, W. S. Simmons of Plainfield and Senator J. W. Mix of Wallingford.

The session was held behind closed doors and the reports of the several officials read. The report of the secretary showed that since the last meeting of the committee in March the number of clubs had increased, as had also the membership of all the clubs in the state. The treasurer's report showed a slight deficit, but this the members present judged themselves to make good. President Farnsworth, Representative Judson and Senator Mix were appointed a committee to revise the constitution and report to the next meeting of the committee to be held at Pleasant Beach, Bridgeport, September 6. A committee was also appointed to formulate a plan for the organization and extension of clubs, and the chairman was also authorized to appoint a committee of active organizers.

At 6 o'clock the members were entertained with a fine banquet, which President Farnsworth had had prepared in the spacious dining room of the hotel. Although the affair was entirely informal some excellent speech-making was made by General Harbison, Stiles Judson, Jr., and James A. Howarth. Besides the members of the committee there were also present W. S. Warriman of Bethel, Representative W. A. Roark of Torrington, A. M. Lane of Windsor, G. C. Barry of Hartford, Daniel D. Bidwell of East Hartford and Insurance Commissioner F. A. Betts of this city.

After the banquet the committee adjourned to the Republican league, where the business of the session was completed. As the Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth senatorial districts were without representation the following were appointed: Senator Palmer of Norwich, Mayor Schofield of Stamford and T. T. Allen of Sprague. After the business meeting the members took a pleasure trip to Woodmont.

ANNUAL GRAND ILLUMINATION.

At Short Beach Takes Place Next Friday Evening—It Will be a Brilliant Event Eclipsing Former Celebrations—Concert by Second Regiment Band, Races, Etc.

The annual illumination of Short Beach will take place Friday night of this week. This is the great gala occasion at this well known summer resort and is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the large number of people who make their summer home there. This year the residents are going to outdo all the previous celebrations. In the afternoon and evening there will be a concert by the Second Regiment band of twenty pieces.

There will also be several races, including a boat race, yacht race, swimming race, running race and numerous other races. In the evening there will be a great illumination of all the cottages and a grand display of fireworks.

The New Haven Street Railway company will run cars every half hour to East Haven and these will connect with No. 1's stages to the beach. After 6 o'clock every car to East Haven will be met at the Green there by a stage, so that the New Haven public can go direct from the corner of Church and Chapel streets to Short Beach.

There will also be ample accommodation to bring the crowds back to this city after the illumination.

TWO NEW HAVEN LADIES INJURED

Mrs. Warren H. Bristol and Mrs. Louise Cowles Thrown From a Carriage.

Mrs. Warren H. Bristol, wife of the assistant city attorney, met with a painful accident last Friday at New Britain, Mass., where she and her husband are spending the latter's vacation. Last Friday, in company with her husband and Mrs. Cowles, wife of C. Cowles, secretary of C. Cowles & Co., she started on a ride over the hills to Spencer, Mass., a distance of twelve miles.

Spencer was reached in safety and the party started to return home. When, about three miles from New Britain, the off hind wheel of the wagon ran off the road into a wash-out, and pitched Mrs. Bristol and Mrs. Cowles into the gutter. Mrs. Bristol's arm was broken at the elbow, and Mrs. Cowles' ankle was sprained. The injured ladies were tenderly carried to New Britain, where four hours after the accident Mrs. Bristol's arm was set by Dr. Sawyer of Barre, Mass. Both ladies are now quite comfortable, which will be good news to their numerous friends in this city.

Appointed an Umpire.

New York, July 29.—George Tidden, the well known ball and sporting writer, was to-day appointed an umpire by President Powers of the Eastern baseball league.

TRIAL OF JOHN SMITH.

The South End Liquor Seizure Case—Began in the East Haven Town Hall Last Evening—Goes Over Until To-morrow—Considerable Excitement.

The trial of John Smith, proprietor of the hotel at South End, where liquor seizures were made Saturday night and early Sunday morning, was begun in the East Haven town hall last evening at 8 o'clock before Justice William H. Robinson. Dwight W. Tuttle prosecuted the case and Grove J. Tuttle appeared for the defense. Only two witnesses were heard. Mr. Leedy, who examined the records of the revenue office, testified that the records showed that a United States tax of $25 had been paid by Smith on June 26, 1895. He also testified concerning the raid, as he accompanied the officers, and gave a list of the amount and kind of liquors taken.

Secretary S. P. Thresher was the next witness. He recounted the occurrences of the raid on Saturday night and Sunday morning. After the cross examination of Mr. Thresher had been finished the case was continued until Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Deputy Sheriff Clinton of North Haven, who served the papers in the raids, was given notice by a German society calling itself "O. D. H. S." to return the beer, as it belonged to them. Threats of suits for trespass and of revulsion processes were flying thick all day yesterday.

Mr. Thresher was seen by a "Courier" reporter last evening and interviewed in regard to the matter. He stated that he was not at all alarmed about any process that might be issued. He called attention to section 3052 of the general statutes, which is as follows:

Section 3052.—Whenever any town shall have voted against the granting of licenses for the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, the deliver by the vendor or his agent, within the limits of said town, of any spirituous or intoxicating liquors shall be deemed a sale of such liquors within said town, although the contract for the sale of such liquors may be made outside the limits of said town.

In regard to this statute he said that the owners or those responsible for the delivery of such liquors may be prosecuted, although they made the contract and sold the liquor in New Haven.

Mr. Thresher then called attention to section 3107 general statutes, which provides that payment of United States revenue tax shall be prima facie evidence that liquor found in the possession or on the premises of the person are kept by him with intent to sell the same.

Chapter 127, acts of 1889, provides that associations, societies or clubs cannot sell, distribute or dispense to members thereof or to other persons in no license towns intoxicating liquors without creating a common nuisance, and whoever keeps, maintains or assists in keeping and maintaining such a nuisance may be fined.

If this German association or society whatever it may be, claims to own the liquors which were found at Smith's hotel, I think we may prosecute every member of this society under this statute. While the law and order league does not go about seeking trouble, Mr. Thresher says that he will prosecute the German society and Mr. Moeller also, who claims that he owns the second load seized, it not being paid for, if they attempt to make trouble for the law and order league.

Died at the Hospital.

Mrs. Catherine Wallace died at the hospital late yesterday afternoon after a lengthy illness from nephritis. She was sixty-five years old and resided with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Lewis, widow of J. Frank Lewis, at 541 Howard avenue. Mrs. Wallace had been sick for several years, but was removed to the hospital several days ago. Her relatives have taken charge of the remains.

Ran Away From the Orphan Asylum. John McKeon, a fourteen-year-old boy whose home is on Thorn street, ran away from St. Francis' orphan asylum yesterday afternoon and was captured last evening by Patrolman Matthew Powers in the vicinity of his old home. He was sent to police headquarters, from whence he was later taken back to the asylum. The authorities at the asylum say that he is incorrigible and an attempt may be made to have him committed to the Connecticut School for Boys' at Meriden.

FEW INDIANS RETURNING

LARGER NUMBERS GOING IN THAN LEAVING THE RESERVATION.

The Seventeenth Infantry Left Market Lake Last Night on Their March for the Grand of the Trouble—Scouts Report That All seems to be Peaceful. Salt Lake, July 29.—It is reported that a few Indians are returning to the Banock reservation from Jackson's Hole, but much larger numbers are pouring in than leaving. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the special train bringing transportation facilities for the infantry in their march across the country arrived at Market Lake. Two hundred and fifty men of the Seventeenth infantry leave Market Lake for Jackson's Hole to-night, but owing to the roughness of the road it will take them longer than expected to complete the march of over a hundred miles.

Arrivals from Soda Springs this morning report the Indians as leaving the Hole by way of Gray's Lake and Soda Springs over the old Lander trail. When the soldiers reach Jackson's Hole there will probably not be an Indian in sight. Market Lake, July 29 (by courier from Sargeant's Lodge).—To-day several Jackson's Hole exiles came into camp from Cunningham's camp, twenty miles north of Marysville and in the heart of the war country. Cunningham says the settlers have had a number of scouts out, three having reported numerous Indian camps, but that all seems to be peaceful. He experienced no difficulty in coming out.

All Cases Dismissed.

New York, July 29.—The grand jury to-day reported that it had examined eight cases of people killed in this city by New York, New Haven and Hartford trains, all of which it had dismissed. The jury found that in each case death was due to the negligence of the people killed, but considered that some remedy should be applied by the railroad to prevent such accidents. The jury said the railroad yards were very dangerous places and every effort should be made to guard the public and prevent accidents occurring to employees.
